

Cambodia COVID-19 Travel Update – June 29, 2021

The Cambodian Ministry of Foreign Affairs says that tourists must have a visa, which is only issued by Cambodian diplomatic missions and embassies abroad. The U.S. Embassy in Cambodia says it has heard that tourist visas aren't being issued. The Foreign Ministry says travelers must have proof of a negative test for the coronavirus taken within 72 hours of departure, as well as health insurance with at least $50,000 in coverage, which can be purchased for $90.
