

Nepal COVID-19 Travel Update – July 9, 2021

According to the U.S. Embassy in Nepal, Americans not fully vaccinated need a negative PCR test taken 72 hours before their flight to enter Nepal. A hotel booking and proof of insurance is required. The Embassy also advises that international travelers must quarantine for 10 days and obtain a negative result at the end in order to leave isolation. Children under age five are exempt from testing.