

Niger COVID-19 Travel Update – July 9, 2021

Passengers must show certificates of negative Covid-19 tests dated within five days before arrival and departure in order to enter and leave the country. Travelers staying for more than two weeks must quarantine for the first week and then get another virus test at no cost.