

Tajikistan COVID-19 Travel Update – July 21, 2021

Travelers must show results from a negative PCR test issued within 72 hours of arrival. Additional tests may be given at the airport. Those who arrive without the pretest may be subject to quarantine, possibly in a government facility, until a negative result is obtained.